EDUCATION

LLB (Bachelor of Laws) – University of KwaZulu-Natal
LLM (Master of Laws) cum laude – University of KwaZulu-Natal

BACKGROUND

Karabo joined Shandu Attorneys in April 2018. When she was studying for her Bachelor of Laws Degree at the University of KwaZulu-Natal ("UKZN"), Karabo wrote two extracurricular research papers. In 2016, Karabo was a semi-finalist in the 45th Annual Ellie Newman Moot Court Competition, a prestigious competition which gives final year law students an opportunity to exhibit their practical legal skills and has produced some of the finest minds in the law fraternity.

In 2017, Karabo completed her Master of Laws Degree cum laude (Full Dissertation by Research) at UKZN. Her research and dissertation focused on International Trade Law and Investment in Africa.

On 19 April 2018, Karabo was awarded the Lexis Nexis Best Research Masters Student Award at the 16th Annual Victoria and Griffiths Mxenge Memorial Lecture presented by Deputy Chief Justice Raymond Zondo.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Karabo works closely with Siyabonga Shandu and Pheegane Raseemela as their protégé. She also assists all her other colleagues with the provision of business law solutions in all four corporate and commercial law disciplines within Shandu Attorneys (that is, business transactions, business agreements, business dispute resolutions and commercial property).
